Seven Awarded Grants from Kuhlman Foundation

HANCOCK – Seven Finlandia University art and design students recently received grants totaling more than $7,000 from the Barbara L. Kuhlman Foundation.

The New York-based Kuhlman Foundation provides merit-based grants to students studying in fiber arts programs across the country. This is the fourth year that Finlandia students have been awarded grant monies from the Kuhlman Foundation.
