ENGLISH MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

38 credits

Finlandia's English majors explore literature from different cultures, practice creative writing, and explore different genres and forms. Selected classes help the student apply English skills to journalism, Web page design, and theatre production. Students study literature in pursuit of vocations in writing, editing, grant production and the arts, as well as positions in education, business, government and social services. This degree is also excellent preparation for graduate school, including law school, among others.
