Library Services- headings include hyperlinks

Request books, journal articles & course reserve chapters or sections

For off campus students and local students who are ill, we are happy to send you books via the postal service and e-mail pdf copies of journal articles and course reserve chapters.

NOTE ON INTERLIBRARY LOAN- As of 3/13/20, Interlibrary loan (borrowing books from other libraries) is still available. The library will borrow items on behalf of FinnU patrons, unless they are local and already have a MyMeLCat account, and send the materials directly to off campus students.

Use Databases from off campus

Start at the Maki Library website, choose the database then log-in to the pop up or drop-down box with your FinnU credentials, the same as your FinnU g-mail.

Research Assistance

Help with locating research will still be available anytime library staff is here. Contact us via Ask-A-Librarian on the library's main webpage, call us at 487-7252, e-mail at maki.library@finlandia.edu. We can also do FaceTime or other video conferencing with students to assist with research or citation help.

The Maki Library staff are here to assist you through this challenging time. Let's all do our part to make it through this pandemic as healthy as we can, while tending to our essential obligations, including completing the spring semester of classes. Let's continue our healthy habits to help protect each other and show each other kindness and understanding during this stressful time.

Take Care,

Rebecca, Dana and Martin
